

SWF Task Force Qualifications

To be considered it is preferred that you have knowledge in the following areas:

- Education/Transition Task Force – Teaching background (including special education), , Counselors, Social Security experts, IEP process for both school age and beyond, IT background, Knowledge of group homes a plus.
- Growing Golden Task Force – Attorney or experience in special needs law, nutritionists and/or neurogenomics experts, experience with housing, employment and parents of 21 and up patient services.
- Growing up Task Force – Experience with early teens resources, social aspects, tips on medications and next steps and how do they cope.
- Surgery Task Force – Experience in Hemis, Eye or Lasers surgeries etc. Possible columnists to also address questions.
- Before Their Time Task Force – Experience with grief, depression, early death and suicide.
- Mental Health for 0-12 Year Old Task Force – Experience with and ability to explain what to expect in mental health including parents, pediatric doctor and caregivers.
- Mental Health for Transition Years Task Force – Experience with this age group and ability to explain what to expect in mental health including parents, doctors and caregivers.
- Mental Health for Adults Task Force -- Experience with this age group and ability to explain what to expect in mental health including parents, doctors, social worker, teachers and caregivers.
- Inspire Task Force – Experience with computers to monitor threads of conversations and report back what the trends are and updates where we can be better.
- Nutrition and Complimentary Medicine Task Force – Experience in nutrition and alternative medicine, including a nutritionist, parents and caregivers
- Grandparents and Caregivers Task Force - Caregivers and Grandparents who work together to help those or advise on what is trending and helping with solutions.